

QECSN Sustainability in Action Award- Judging criteria

Service/ Individual Name
Category

	Criteria	Prompts and things to consider
Name of the project	A creative title that reflects the focus of the project	-Is it creative? -Does it reflect the focus of the project?	/5
Telling the story of the project	-The project is outlined clearly. -Inspiration for the project is described. -Description of the involved parties and the decision making process is included	-are multiple parties involved in the decision making? -local relevance? -area of sustainability? -long term potential? -repeatability? Replicate-able? -Does the story engage the reader?	/10
Linking the learning in the project	-Description of changes and outcomes experienced from multiple perspectives -Changes are linked to the category -Links to EYLF and/or NQS and/or ECEfS research/policy	-clear links between practice and theory/policy -Are multiple perspectives taken?	/15
Future potential for the project	-Description of the plans for the future of the project	-Will the project “live on”? how will it “live on”? -What differences will the project make to the future? -What is the appropriateness for context/stakeholders? -Who has been empowered by this project?	/15
Photos	-High standard of visual representation -Max 4 photos -Ethical considerations: consent and assent	-Do the photos reflect the spirit and focus of the project? -Do the photos help the viewer to understand how the project might be replicated or repeated by another? -Do they inspire others to change? - Are permissions addressed?	/5